

I wish to see the Federal Government in-act a law and to enforce it concerning the tele-marketer. They call at all hours of the night and day. They are quite rude and have cursed me when I was not interested in what they were selling. I would never purchase ANYTHING from any of them as most have turned out to be a scam. I am not saying they all are, but look at the record.